Invitations Are Issued for Walker-Davis Wedding.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Grimes Walker, daughter of Mrs. Nina Chinn Walker, to Mr. John Williams Davis Saturday evening, October 22. The ceremony will be performed at 8:30 o'clock in Bethlehem chapel of Washington Cathedral by the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Roosevelt F. Alsop of Brooklyn, cousin of the bride, and the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott, rector of St. Margaret's Church.

A reception will follow in the Washington Club. Miss Walker will be attended by Miss Muriel Denys, as maid of honor and Miss Marjorie Jacobus of Hartford, Conn.; Miss Emily Price of Baltimore, Miss Katherine Fletcher of Miss Floy Barnhart of Washington. Mr. Davis' brother-in-law, Mr. Harrison of Petersburg, Va., will be best man and the ushers will include the three brothers of the bride, Mr. J. Graham Walker, Mr. R. Serrill W. Walker and Midshipman Hubert W. Walker.

Mrs. Richard H. Chinn will entertain at luncheon October 21, when her guests will be the relatives of out-of-town guests, and Miss Denys, will entertain at luncheon in honor of Miss Walker, when her guests will include the bridesmaids.

Miss Walker is visiting her brother at Annapolis and will return to Washington Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Frances King, daughter of Mrs. H. V. King, and Mr. J. Reaney Kelley were married last evening in St. Andrew's Church. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the rector of the church, the Rev. J. J. Dimon, and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's mother for the members of the wedding party and relatives.

The church had a simple decoration of Easter lilies and lavender chrysanthemums. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Harry V. King, wore a gown of white charmeuse made simply and with a court train of rose point lace. Her tulle veil was held by a coronet of orange blossoms at either side, and she carried bride roses with shower of lilies of the valley.

She was attended by Miss Frances Work as maid of honor and Miss Louise Mormon as bridesmaid, the former wearing orchid chiffon trimmed with silver and carrying lavender chrysanthemums, and the latter in peach chiffon trimmed with silver and carrying baby's breath. They both wore wreaths of silver leaves in hair.

Mr. William F. Kelley, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Byron Price, Mr. Dean Gallagher, Mr. Frank Hurd and

Mr. P. J. J. Nicolaides. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Kelley left for a wedding trip to Asheville, N. C., the latter wearing a traveling suit of beige polart will trimmed in dark blue and a small dark blue panne velvet hat. After November 1 Mr. and Mrs. Kelley will be at home at the Chastleton.

Miss Alma Knox Weds Mr. A. Malcolm Duvall.

The marriage of Miss Alma Knox, daughter of Mrs. George Vernon Knox and the late Mr. Knox, to Mr. A. Malcolm Duvall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Duvall, took place last evening. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in St. Stephen's Church by the rector, the Rev. George Fiske Dudley, and was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's mother, on 16th street. The church had an artistic decoration of lilies, chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, and in the house the decorative scheme was varied with roses. The bride wore a gown of chiffon velvet, trimmed with pearls and rhinestones; her veil was held by a Russian coronet of Brussels lace, an heirloom in her family, and she carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Leighton and Miss Margaret Ridgely, who wore similar costumes of cloth of gold veiled in chrysanthemums. All of the bride's attendants wore wreaths of gold leaves in their hair.

Mr. Walker M. Duvall, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Vernon M. Knox, brother of the bride, Mr. Frederick E. Altman, Mr. Thomas L. Dawson of Rockville, Md., and Mr. H. Fletcher Green of New York.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Knox, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Duvall, mother of the bridegroom, assisted in receiving the former wearing a gown of sapphire blue cut velvet over cloth of silver, and the latter in jet and Harding blue sequins over black satin.

Mr. and Mrs. Duvall left later for a wedding trip, the latter traveling in a Pullman.
